Chapter 2 by Da'Najah

Waking up was always bad. I would stare at the floor hoping that I would hear "Babe it's your turn!" Coming from my wife in the bathroom but I would never hear it. I can't help but think that it was my fault. Just maybe if I would have let her drive. Everybody told me it wasn't my fault but my mind wouldn't let me believe it.

Chapter 3 by Adam Muller

When I'd get up, I'd see her in the kitchen wearing my favorite collared shirt the she bought me. She'd make coffee, and talk to me. I thought it was my brain tricking things. But what she told me that morning was no trick.
